DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 10-18, 20-23 and 26-43 are pending.
2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 was filed in this application after a decision by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, but before the filing of a Notice of Appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or the commencement of a civil action. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114 and prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 08/24/2009 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 10-18, 20-23 and 26-43 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims relate to the scanning of data for malicious code when it is transferred between a central processing unit and storage where the scanning can be disabled by a user which results in precluding the transfer of data between the central processing unit and the storage. The prior art teaches the scanning of data for malicious code when it is transferred between a central processing unit and storage as taught by Makita. The prior art also generally teaches a system where a check is performed as to whether an anti-virus scanner is enabled and if it is not enabled precluding the system access to the Internet or other network connection (see newly cited references Yanovsky and Hoene). These references fail to explicitly disclose that the user is disabling the scanner and furthermore the disabling of data transfer is between a host device and a network as opposed to the claimed central processing unit and storage. As such the prior art fails to disclose " wherein a user is allowed to disable the scanning module, and data is precluded from being transmitted from the storage to the central processing unit upon the disabling of the scanning module" (or similarly recited in each independent claim) in combination with the remaining claim limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Yanovsky (US 7010807) and Hoene et al. (US 20020199116) teach methods of termination the transfer of data based on an anti-virus scanner being disabled.
